RICK WARREN

BEFORE YOU DIVE IN

Your church is about to experience God's power through prayer. Ultimately, the key to unprecedented spiritual growth isn't found in the campaign materials or pre-campaign preparations, even though both are important. Instead, the key to making this campaign a success is your commitment to prayer.

As you begin your journey, prayer will be the most important thing you can do. Throughout the training materials you'll find encouragement to rely on God's power through prayer. Prepare with prayer, plan with prayer, and implement with prayer. Without prayer, this campaign will be nothing more than several weeks of religious activities. Yet when you and your leadership team spend time on your knees before God, his life-changing power will guide your every step and make these some of the most important days in your church's history.

40 Days of Prayer is a church-wide campaign that will unite your congregation in prayer. Your people will learn how to pray with more confidence and greater faith than ever before.

Whether it's praying for a breakthrough in marriages, health, finances, or relationships, persistent prayer is how God moves to transform people's lives.

Breakthroughs always begin with prayer.

Throughout this campaign, your church will:

- Develop a powerful prayer life
- Learn how to pray for a breakthrough
- Unlock the secret to answered prayer
- Grow closer in unity

The lessons in Pastor Rick Warren's brand-new 40 Days of Prayer campaign kit will help your congregation pray persistently and trust God for everything.

THE BIG PICTURE

Through weekend services, small group studies, and daily devotionals, your entire church family will unite and focus on the same spiritual themes for the course of the campaign. Imagine for a moment the impact in your church when each person lives out the biblical principles they study and practice. This impact grows as those individuals live in powerful community with their small group, and reaches its peak when those small groups come together to experience the power of the principles as an entire congregation! We call this the Power of Alignment. This concentrated time of alignment will bear lasting, eternal fruit in all levels of your church. The Power of Alignment is best seen in the three major components of the campaign:

1. INDIVIDUAL PARTICIPATION

Individuals are the heart of the campaign. Every day, each person will complete a short prayer prompt. This practice will challenge the participant to reflect on the themes of this campaign and apply the learning to their lives. These prayer prompts are part of the 40 Days of Prayer Workbook.

2. GROUP PARTICIPATION

A powerful element of the campaign is encouraging people to experience true biblical community through small groups. The interactive curriculum includes a Bible study taught on video by Pastor Rick Warren, followed by a guided discussion time where group members engage and apply the principles they are learning to their lives.

3. WEEKEND SERVICE PARTICIPATION

Each weekend of the campaign, the Pastor and the Weekend Services Team will unpack the campaign's themes for your entire congregation through special sermons and music.

DREAM BIG DREAMS

Some churches make the mistake of limiting God’s power by thinking too small. We challenge you to go on a faith adventure and think impossible. Pastor Rick calls this concept “exponential thinking.” The idea behind exponential thinking is simply this: Identify the results you think you can achieve, and go beyond them to a goal that only God can make happen. God will do far more through big goals than he ever will in the safety of small goals. Remember, if you can figure out how to pull it off, you aren’t thinking exponentially! Exponential thinking is God’s secret ingredient in this campaign – stand back in wonder as he goes to work.

“Exponential growth begins with exponential thinking.”

Lord, I have heard the news about you; I am amazed at what you have done. Lord, do great things once again in our time; make those things happen again in our own days . . .

TIME FOR ACTION

STEP 1

GET ORIENTED

These campaign materials have been developed through the experiences at Saddleback Church and the thousands of other churches that have used Saddleback's spiritual growth campaigns. Take the time to review the various components as you begin the process of developing your campaign.

Go to STORE.PASTORS.COM/CAMPAIGNCENTRAL. Here you will find Campaign Central, where we have developed general how-to steps for any campaign. You'll find success guides for specific members of your campaign team including the Campaign Director, Communications Coordinator, Pastor, Prayer Coordinator, Small Groups Coordinator, and Weekend Services Coordinator.

VISIT STORE.PASTORS.COM/PRAYER

Here you will be able to review the materials you need for this campaign. A study guide is recommended for each group participant. In addition, each group will need one DVD. There are additional resources such as Pastor Rick's sermons, children's curriculum, youth ministry materials, and 40 Days of Prayer themed bookmarks to help your congregation memorize the key verse from each small group lesson. Turn back to page 2 to review the complete list of printed materials, digital resources, and ancillary items.

CUSTOMER CARE TEAM

If you have any questions or issues that are not addressed by the campaign materials, please contact our Customer Care Team. Our toll-free number is 800-723-3532. You may also email questions to info@pastors.com. A representative will gladly assist you with your questions, help you place a resource order, and verify shipping options.

STEP 2

BUILD THE TEAM

WHO TO ASK

Start planning and training for the campaign about two months (60 days) prior to the launch. Begin by building a team of Campaign Coordinators. Each team member will assist you by coordinating a specific component of the campaign. The chart below illustrates how a team made up of six members would operate.

1. PASTOR: Leading the campaign is the Pastor, who gives spiritual direction to the campaign, casts the vision, and motivates the congregation to get involved.
2. CAMPAIGN DIRECTOR: At the heart of the campaign is the Campaign Director, who reports to the pastor and manages the coordinators as they perform the day-to-day responsibilities of the campaign.
3. COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR: Working with the Campaign Director as the other logistics administrator of the team, the Communications Coordinator promotes the campaign and supports other team members by coordinating all their communications to the church.

4. PRAYER COORDINATOR: Working in tandem with the Pastor, the Prayer Coordinator plans and implements the prayer strategy, covering the entire campaign effort with prayer. Prayer is part of the individual level of engagement with the campaign.
5. WEEKEND SERVICES COORDINATOR: The Weekend Services Coordinator plans the thematic weekend services during the campaign, preparing the special features that enhance the exploration of each week's theme. It is in the weekend services that people experience the congregational level of engagement with the campaign.
6. SMALL GROUPS COORDINATOR: The Small Groups Coordinator directs the team that recruits and trains hosts for adult small groups, and provides support as they form their groups and meet weekly during the campaign. Here, participants experience the small group level of engagement with the campaign.

HOW TO BUILD A GREAT TEAM

Prayer is the first step to building a great team of coordinators. Resist the urge to run right out and make a few phone calls to the “usual suspects.” Pray and wait to hear from God. There may be someone in your church you wouldn't have thought of, but who has gifts just waiting to be used on your team. And God has been preparing them for such a time as this. Through prayer, let the Lord lead you to his team of Campaign Coordinators. As you build the Campaign Coordinators Team, think about those in your church who are involved in service and ministry, or newer members who have expressed a passion for getting involved with their new church. Building a team for such a significant experience in your church's life offers the opportunity to impact your church and its ministry long-term. You will likely discover potential new leaders for your church. People may find and develop their spiritual gifts in new areas of ministry they've never considered.

Here are some suggested qualifications to seek in any team member:

- Excitement and enthusiasm about sharing the vision of the campaign with others
- Has an authentic walk with the Lord
- Leadership and/or organizational gifts
- Strategic and/or creative thinking
- Willingness to give the necessary time to this campaign
- Well-respected as a spiritual leader

- A commitment to excellence
- Ability to problem-solve and delegate responsibilities

In choosing people for specific roles as coordinators, here are some key questions to ask:

- Campaign Director: Who is a “big picture” person that is gifted in administration and team-building?
- Communications Coordinator: Who has a good understanding of the internal systems of your church?
- Prayer Coordinator: Who is the prayer warrior in your church?
- Weekend Services Coordinator: Who knows the style of your church and can work effectively with the Pastor?
- Small Groups Coordinator: Who knows a lot of people in your church and has a passion for creating community?

Depending on the scope of your campaign you may also need to add other coordinators for children and youth, special events, and mission projects.

STEP 3

THE FIRST TEAM MEETING

Team meetings are great opportunities to infuse a strong sense of community into your Campaign Coordinators. Pray together. Dream and trust God together. You will develop a deep and unbreakable bond in your joint effort to lead this powerful, life-changing journey in your church.

Before your first meeting, think through how the campaign may need to be adjusted to fit your church's specific context, but be careful about making any extensive changes. Thousands of churches have discovered that doing the campaign the way it is prescribed gets the most effective results.

The Pastor and Campaign Director lead the first meeting together. The Pastor shares the vision of the campaign and the Campaign Director explains the preparation materials. Distribute Success Guides to each coordinator. As you explain what it takes to prepare for the campaign, make sure everyone comes away understanding the following four concepts:

1. WHO DOES WHAT?

All team members need to become familiar with their particular areas of responsibility and their role in the campaign. Each coordinator should review his/her Success Guide before choosing other team members to assist them with their responsibilities. These Success Guides are available at STORE.PASTORS.COM/CAMPAIGNCENTRAL.

2. HOW DO WE DO THIS?

The Success Guide provides step-by-step instructions for each phase of the campaign. Although the coaching materials have grown out of the experiences of thousands of churches, we know one size doesn't fit all. The specific ways in which you carry out each step can be adjusted to fit your local context.

3. WHEN DOES IT NEED TO BE DONE?

The timeline included in this guide lists general guidelines for when each step of the campaign needs to be done. Depending on the size of your congregation, the timeline might need to be adjusted. Keep in mind that it is usually better to allow more time rather than feel rushed.

4. WHEN WILL WE MEET?

Once your initial training meeting is complete, the timeline suggests you schedule meetings every week until the beginning of the campaign. Once the campaign starts, you may not need to meet as often, perhaps scaling back to meeting every two weeks until the end of the campaign.

NOTES ABOUT CAMPAIGN COORDINATORS MEETINGS

AGENDA

When you hold team meetings, your agenda should focus on things that concern the entire team. Here are some possible agenda items for each meeting:

- Prayer
- Progress since the last meeting
- Upcoming events, communications or promotions that need coordination between teams
- What is going well?
- What is not going well?
- Where is help needed?

STEP 4

PLAN YOUR MATERIALS

Here are some considerations when planning your budget for funding the campaign, promotions, and providing campaign resources.

CAMPAIGN COSTS BUDGET VS. OFFERING

If the costs of a campaign are difficult for your church to handle within your regular budget, pray about whether this is God's will for your church. We have seen God provide time and time again for churches who did not know exactly how their costs were going to be covered. One successful strategy has been to take an end-of-campaign celebration offering, where the people respond to God's blessing by giving.

“Our church was running 500 at the beginning of the campaign, and 850 by the end. One week before our Celebration, I did our annual stewardship campaign in about two minutes per service. And I said, ‘If this campaign has meant anything to you, if it’s changed your life or your family, as it has changed our community, and our church, I want to ask you to give the biggest cash offering you’ve ever given in the history of our church.’ With only that two-minute request that I repeated at the Celebration, by the end of our second service we had $50,000 in cash. At the end of ten days we had over $120,000. It was enough to pay off every debt of our church. We went before the congregation and said, ‘Now that we’re debt-free, what would you like us to do?’ They said, ‘Take this Purpose Driven message to as many people as you can, and this will be a part of our mission effort.’ As a result, we’ve been to Africa, Mexico, Japan, Vietnam, Hong Kong, and Eastern Europe in teams sharing the Purpose Driven message.”

— Dave Holden, Lake Gregory Community Church, Crestline, CA

Promotion Costs Invest in Your People: If your budget is limited, invest in your PEOPLE and not in products. Your people are your best promotional tool, so invest in getting the congregation excited about the campaign. Word of mouth is priceless!

COMPANION JOURNAL AND SMALL GROUP CURRICULUM: SELL VS. GIVE

Sell:

- Take pre-orders so you know how many books to order.
- Receive offerings put out baskets at the book table to receive offerings. If people can't pay, they can still have a workbook, as some may donate additional funds to provide books for others.
- Have your hosts purchase their supplies, then collect money from their group members. For the approximate cost of a night at the movies, each person receives their small group materials, all at no additional cost to the church.

Give:

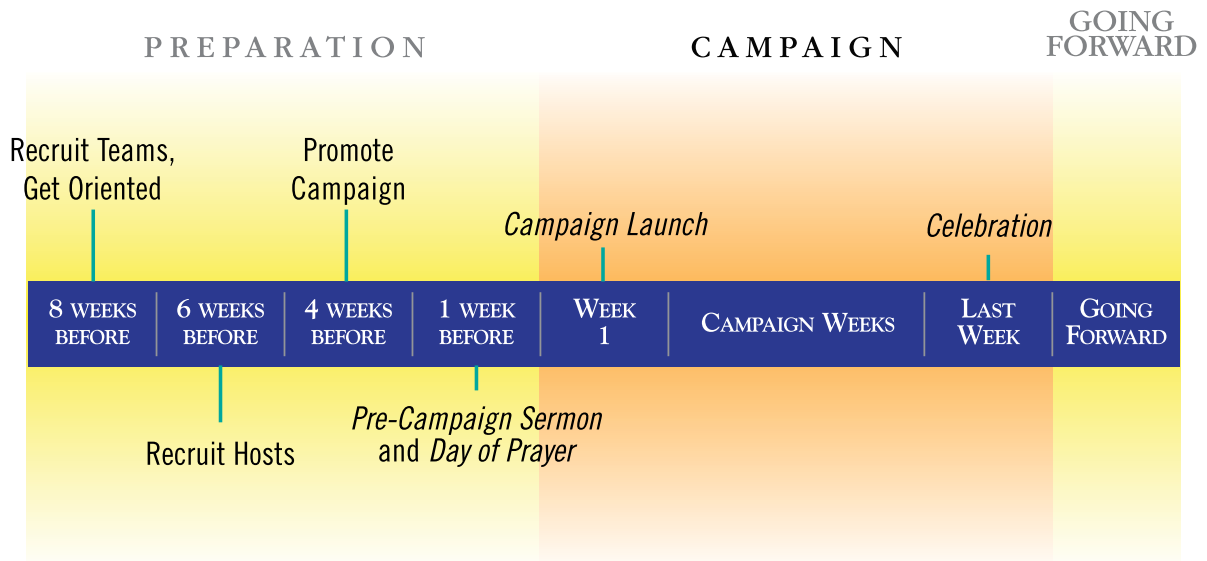

It is such a pleasant surprise for people to receive something of value with no strings attached! Giving the books away also removes a barrier for people who can't afford it, who are visiting, or who are feeling disconnected from your church.

- Budget: Pay for them using funds from your budget.
- Donor: Cover the costs through one or more donors.
- Offering: Cover the costs with an end-of-campaign Celebration Offering.
